This Qualified Protective Order ("Order") is presented to the Court pursuant to 45 C.F.R. § 164.512(e) of the Privacy Standards promulgated pursuant to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPAA"). The parties agree to comply fully with the terms and conditions of this Order.

1. This Order shall apply to the production of all documents produced pursuant to the attached Subpoenas, such documents hereinafter referred to ("Records from all healthcare providers").

2. The Records of plaintiff, Gloria Faye Stutts, from all healthcare providers shall be used only in the course of the above-captioned proceedings and provided to all counsel of record.

3. Upon conclusion of this action, the Records from all healthcare providers, and all copies thereof, shall either be returned to defendant and third-party plaintiff's counsel or destroyed.

4. By approval of this Order, the parties agree to be bound by the conditions of this Order.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
